

Job Title Associate Health Systems Consultant	Directorate and team This role sits in the Health Systems Change team in the Policy, Campaigns and Improvement (PCI) Directorate
Key focus of the role We have made good progress in improving the quality and standards of diabetes care in recent years. But much more needs to be done. As an Associate Health Systems Consultant in our Health Systems Change team, you'll play a vital role in helping the NHS across the UK unlock its potential for improving diabetes care. You will play an important role in supporting our work to improve inpatient diabetes care and facilitate other systems change activities across the team.	Department  <pre> graph TD AD[Assistant Director, Policy, Campaigns and Improvement] --> HSC[Health Systems Change] AD --> IHE[Involvement and Healthcare Engagement] </pre>
Key deliverables <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Support and coordinate existing and new projects within the Health Systems Change team Collaborate with people living with diabetes and healthcare professionals as part of systems change activities Create content and manage a variety of communication activities which support systems change 	Job and reporting Line  <pre> graph TD HSC[Head of Systems Change] --> SHSC1[Senior Health Systems Consultant] HSC --> SHSC2[Senior Health Systems Consultant] HSC --> ICL[Inpatient Care Lead] SHSC1 --> HSC1[Health Systems Consultants (x2)] SHSC2 --> HSC2[Health Systems Consultants (x3)] ICL --> AHC1[Associate Health Systems Consultant] HSC1 --> AHC2[Associate Health Systems Consultants (x2)] </pre>
Contractual information <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Contract type: Fixed-Term Contract Hours: Full time (35 hours) Pay range: London office based £27,216 - £30,239, Home based or other regions: £24,010 - £27,034 Band: 6
Key working relationships internal <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Health Systems Change team Policy Team Assistant Director, Policy, Campaigns and Improvement Care Team Involvement and Healthcare Engagement Team Regional and National colleagues

Key working relationships external

This role will work with a diverse group of partners but will need to work closely with people with and affected by diabetes, professionals (including healthcare professionals and those working in non-clinical roles), NHS organisations, professional bodies and interest groups, royal colleges, and academics.

All jobs at Diabetes UK are based on our competency framework called the What-How Framework. In the following sections we've listed:

- the key activities you'll undertake (the What) and
- the skills, knowledge, experience and behaviours you need to be successful in this role (the How).

Key activities – What you need to do

Improving Delivery	Making Change Happen	Communicating with others	Collaborating with colleagues
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Support gathering of insights on challenges and unmet areas of need in inpatient care and other areas of our team's work as required. 2. Provide high quality programme support to deliver outcomes across our portfolio of systems change programmes. 3. Work in partnership with people living with, and affected by, diabetes. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 4. Support the delivery of new and existing systems change projects. 5. Support people to navigate complexity and make change happen. 6. Coordinate events and workshops which inspire creativity and collaboration. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 7. Engage with a wide range of audiences internally and externally using effective communication skills. 8. Level up our online content and engagement to support our systems work. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 9. Proactively involve teams in the delivery of our work and action opportunities for joined up working. 10. Increase organisational buy in and knowledge of our systems change work and focus areas.

Skills, knowledge and behaviours – How you need to do it

Improving Delivery	Making Change Happen	Communicating with others	Collaborating with colleagues
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Demonstrate your existing knowledge of health systems, develop new expertise, and think creatively about systems practice. 2. Work with team members to find new methods of capturing insight and measuring impact, and apply them to our programmes of work. 3. Use your existing knowledge of involvement to champion genuine and active collaboration between our programmes of work and people living with and affected by diabetes. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 4. Apply your skills in project management to successfully coordinate activities against agreed timeframes and outcomes. 5. Engage with a range of stakeholders; championing diversity and actively addressing inequalities. 6. Apply your skills in facilitation, develop new tools, and measure the impact of event and workshops. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 7. Develop useful, plain English resources and tools for a range of purposes and audiences. 8. Identify engagement opportunities and develop new professional networks. 9. Represent and advertise our portfolio of work at external events and meetings. 10. Compellingly communicate our work to new partners, and administer existing partnerships. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 11. Develop internal communications resources and lead on internal engagement. 12. Develop a working understanding of the functions of other directorates and identify opportunities for collaboration.

Qualifications – Qualifications you need to carry out this role

N/A